A Day Out

Hi Rashid,

Can we meet in town on Saturday?

I want to go to the book shop. I 1 (read / reads / reading) every day. Do you like reading? 2 (There is / It is / There are) lots of great books.

3 (Can / Did / Where) we meet in the park? It is 4 (opposite / next / behind) to the bank. We can eat lunch at my favourite restaurant. I think you 5 (do / have / should) get the pizza, it's the best.

See you soon,

Hassan.

Things to do in London

I am writing this blog from London. I think you should visit London soon. When you arrive, try an open-air tour with London Bus. You can see famous places in the city such as Big Ben, the Tower of London and Buckingham Palace. Many tourists also like to visit Hyde park. It's next to Buckingham Palace. It's the largest of the four Royal Parks and the Winter Wonderland Festival is held there. People shop and eat wonderful food at the restaurant in the park.

The British Museum is also a good place to visit. It has over one million objects so there are a lot of interesting things! My advice is to visit the London Eye before leaving London. It is amazing seeing the whole city from above. When you are travelling back home, I think you should visit the shops at London Heathrow Airport. There are all kinds of shops in the airport and they are amazing. Try to go to the airport early if you want to do some shopping.
