Read the texts and answer the questions:

Text 1:

The city streets are always busy with different types of transport. People use buses, cars, and bikes to move around. The metro and train are popular because they are fast and avoid traffic. Everyone follows the traffic lights and uses zebra crossings to stay safe.

Text 2:

There are many interesting places to visit in the city. The aquarium and the library are great for learning. For entertainment, there's the cinema and the zoo. If you want to shop or eat, the shopping centre is the place to be, with its many floors and a variety of shops and food courts.

Text 3:

Free time in the city is always fun. People like to do different things like taking photos at the beach club or visiting the palace. Some go to the stadium to watch a race or spend a day at the forest. Making arrangements for these activities is part of the excitement.

Text 4:

Past experiences shape our routines and habits. Whether it's a party with a best friend or a day lost in the city, every moment is a memory. People keep diaries to remember these times, writing about everything from a loud shout at a concert to the quiet moments at a summer camp.
