Lesson 3 What are you saying?

1 Read the text about gestures in Jordan. Which gestures are the same in your country? Put a tick (✓). Which are different? Put a cross (X).

- In many parts of the world people nod their heads to say 'yes', but not in Jordan. Jordanian people move their heads forward and close their eyes to say 'yes'.
- To communicate 'no', Jordanian people raise their eyebrows and move their head back.
- When they don't understand, they shake their heads from side to side.
- If you put your right hand over your heart, this means 'Thank you very much'.
- You should never point your finger at someone though. This is very rude.
- Also, don't show the soles of your feet. This is also very rude.

2 Write a short paragraph about gestures in your country.
