

تم تحميل هذا الملف من موقع المناهج الإماراتية

*للحصول على أوراق عمل لجميع الصفوف وجميع المواد اضغط هنا

<https://almanahj.com/ae>

* للحصول على أوراق عمل لجميع مواد الصف السابع اضغط هنا

<https://almanahj.com/ae/7>

* للحصول على جميع أوراق الصف السابع في مادة لغة انجليزية وجميع الفصول, اضغط هنا

<https://almanahj.com/ae/7english>

* للحصول على أوراق عمل لجميع مواد الصف السابع في مادة لغة انجليزية الخاصة بـ الفصل الثاني اضغط هنا

<https://almanahj.com/ae/7english2>

* لتحميل كتب جميع المواد في جميع الفصول للـ الصف السابع اضغط هنا

<https://almanahj.com/ae/grade7>

للتحدث إلى بوت المناهج على تلغرام: اضغط هنا

https://t.me/almanahj\_bot

CONTINUE LESSON

50. Using Quantifiers

50. Check My Understanding 1

Complete the sentence.

A quantifier is _____

ATTEMPT 1

a word or phrase that explains how much or how many of an item you are talking about. ✓ a word that describes a noun.

A quantifier is a word or phrase that explains how much or how many of an item you are talking about. A few, plenty of, and some are examples of quantifiers.

something that is not counted in numbers.

What is a countable noun?

ATTEMPT 1

A countable noun describes an action.

A countable noun is something that can be counted in numbers. ✓

You put a quantifier before a countable noun to show how much or many of it you are talking about.

A countable noun is something that is not counted in numbers.

A countable noun is a word that describes a noun.

30. Check My Understanding 1

Complete the sentence.

An uncountable noun is _____

ATTEMPT 1

something that is not counted in numbers. ✓

An uncountable noun is something that is not counted in numbers.

a word that describes an action.

something that can be counted in numbers.

50. Check My Understanding 1

What is a quantifier?

ATTEMPT 1

- A quantifier is a word or phrase that explains how much or how many of an item you are talking about. ✓

A quantifier is a word or phrase that explains how much or how many of an item you are talking about.

- A quantifier is something that can never be counted in numbers.
- A quantifier is something that can only be counted in numbers.
- A quantifier is a word that describes a noun.

Complete the sentence.

A countable noun is _____

something that can be counted in numbers. ✓

A countable noun is something that can be counted in numbers.

a negative word that describes a noun.

a positive word that describes a noun.

something that is not counted in numbers.

What is an uncountable noun?

- An uncountable noun is something that can be counted in numbers.
- An uncountable noun is a word that describes a noun as bad or unhelpful.
- An uncountable noun is a word that describes a noun.
- An uncountable noun is something that is not counted in numbers. ✓

An uncountable noun is something that is not counted in numbers.

Choose the quantifier in the sentence below.

Yesterday, I bought a bunch of bananas.

a bunch of

bananas

I bought

Yesterday

An uncountable noun is something that is 1. counted in numbers ✘. When talking about an uncountable noun, you can use quantifiers such as 2. a cup of ✔ and a carton of.

✚ counted in numbers

✚ not counted in numbers

✚ a few

1. counted in numbers ✘

A countable noun is something that can be counted in numbers. For example, five books.

not counted in numbers ✔

2. a cup of ✔

When talking about an uncountable noun, you can use quantifiers such as a cup of and a carton of.

ATTEMPT 3

A few, plenty of, and some are examples of

1. few

1. few

A few, plenty of, and some are examples of quantifiers. A quantifier is a word or phrase that explains how much or how many of an item you are talking about.

quantifiers

You use quantifiers with countable and uncountable nouns. For a countable noun, you use quantifiers such as a few, plenty of, and some. For an uncountable noun, you can use quantifiers such as a cup of, a carton of, and a packet of.

You are describing the number or amount of something. Complete the rule.

You place the

1.

quantifier

before the 2.

noun

positive adjective

verb

Complete the rules.

1. A countable noun ✓ is something that is always counted in numbers.

2. An uncountable noun ✓ is something that is never counted in numbers.

↕ A quantifier is

↕ A positive adjective is

1. A countable noun

A countable noun is something that is counted in numbers. For example, five books

A countable noun is something that 1. is counted in numbers ✓ ▾. When talking about a countable noun, you can use quantifiers such as 2. a few ✓ ▾ and 3. plenty of ✓ ▾.

---

Complete the sentence.

You use  to talk about the number of something. They can be countable or uncountable terms.

---

Uncountable nouns are things or ideas that cannot be counted. You put a quantifier before an uncountable noun to show  or  of it.

1. the size ✓

You put a quantifier before an uncountable noun to show the size or the amount of it.

2. the amount ✓

You put a quantifier before an uncountable noun to show the size or the amount of it.

You put a quantifier before an uncountable noun to show the size or amount of the thing you are
... of are examples of quantifiers that are used when

Complete the rules.

A  is a word or phrase that explains how much or how many of an item you are talking about. You use quantifiers with  and uncountable nouns.

Complete the sentence. Put your answers in alphabetical order.

When talking about uncountable nouns, you can use quantifiers such as

1. plenty of ✓ and 2. some ✓

✚ a bunch of

✚ a carton of

Read the passage. Identify the sentences that contain countable nouns.

I have been eating a vegetarian diet for two years. I eat lots of vegetables. I eat rice. A vegetarian diet has all the nutrients needed to stay healthy.

I eat lots of vegetables. ✓

Vegetables are countable nouns. They can be counted in numbers.

A vegetarian diet has all the nutrients needed to stay healthy. ✓

Nutrients are countable nouns. They can be counted in numbers.

I have been eating a vegetarian diet for two years. ✓

Years are countable nouns. They can be counted in numbers.

50. My Exit Ticket

Read the passage. Identify the sentences that contain uncountable nouns.

I have been eating a vegetarian diet for many years. It has all the nutrients I need to stay healthy. I eat three meals every day. In one week, I make sure to eat plenty of vegetables. I drink milk. I also drink juice.

I eat three meals every day.

I eat three meals every day.

I have been eating a vegetarian diet for two years.

I also drink juice.

Juice is an uncountable noun.

I drink milk.

Milk is an uncountable noun.

50. Check My Understanding 2

Read the passage. Identify the sentences that contain countable nouns.

I have been eating a vegetarian diet for many years. It has all the nutrients I need to stay healthy. I eat three meals every day. In one week, I make sure to eat plenty of vegetables. I drink milk. I also drink juice.

ATTEMPT 1

ATTEMPT 1

I eat three meals every day.

Meals and days are a countable noun. They can be counted in numbers.

I have been eating a vegetarian diet for many years.

Years are a countable noun. They can be counted in numbers.

In one week, I make sure to eat plenty of vegetables.

Week and vegetables are countable nouns. They can be counted in numbers.

I drink milk.

You got three in a row!

Read Isa's shopping list. Which of the items listed are uncountable nouns?

Bread
Milk
Eggs
Fruit
Rice
Pasta
Butter
Juice

ATTEMPT 1

ATTEMPT 1

a carton of juice

Juice is an uncountable noun. A carton of is an example of a quantifier used with an uncountable noun.

a bottle of milk

Milk is an uncountable noun. A bottle of is an example of a quantifier used with uncountable nouns.

some apples

a few oranges

a can of soup

Soup is an uncountable noun. A can of is an example of a quantifier used with

You got three in a row! 🏆👍👍👍

< Previous

Next >

50. Check My Understanding 2

Read Isa's shopping list. Which of the items listed are countable nouns?

ATTEMPT 1

a bag of rice

a carton of juice

a few oranges

Oranges are countable nouns. They can be counted in numbers.

five pears

Pears are countable nouns. They can be counted in numbers.

plenty of strawberries

Strawberries are countable nouns. They can be counted in numbers.

Countable nouns are things that can be counted. You put a quantifier before a countable noun to

You got three in a row! 🏆

Look at the picture. Then use the word bank to complete the sentence using the correct quantifier

Word Bank
bottle	box	loaf	carton

The picture shows a  of bread.

Look at the picture. Then choose the quantifier that best describes the amount of bread.
The picture shows _____.

ATTEMPT 1

a loaf of bread

a loaf of bread

The picture shows one loaf of bread. In this case, it is correct to use the quantifier

many loaves of bread

some loaves of bread

Look at the picture. Then choose the correct answer.
The picture shows _____

ATTEMPT 1

two loaves of bread

some loaves of bread

The picture shows some loaves of bread. There is more than one loaf of bread. When describing the amount of bread, the quantifier is loaf. For words that end in -f and add -ves when there is more than one.

a loaf of bread

There is more than one loaf of bread. A loaf means just one.

ATTEMPT 1

Complete the rule.

You place a quantifier before a noun. When you talk about more than one thing, you often add a(n)

1. -s

2. -ves

You got three in a row

3. Check My Understanding 2

Word Bank
carton	loaf	bar	shuttle

I drank a

1. carton ✓

of milk and ate a

2. bar ✓

of chocolate.

Look at the picture. Then choose the quantifier that best describes the amount of chocolate.

The picture shows _____.

a carton of chocolate

a bar of chocolate

a cup of chocolate

two bars of chocolate

The picture shows two bars of chocolate.

You place a quantifier before a noun. When you talk about more than one thing, you often

Look at the picture. It shows _____.

ATTEMPT 1

plenty of bars of chocolate

a bar of chocolate

You place a quantifier before a noun. In this case, the quantifier is a bar of.

two bars of chocolate

some bars of chocolate

Look at the picture. Then use the word bank and the picture below to complete the sentence using the correct quantifier.

Word Bank
a bunch of	a pack of	a bucket of	a box of

I bought  bananas.

ATTEMPT 1

Complete the rule.

You place a quantifier before a noun. When you talk about more than one thing, you often add

1.  to the quantifier.

1.

If you are describing more than one thing, you often add an -s to the quantifier.

Complete the sentence using the correct quantifiers.

I went the shop to buy  soup,  bread, and  bananas.

ATTEMPT 1

Look at the picture. Then complete the sentence using the correct quantifier.

The plate has  ✓ cheese, a  ✓ grapes and  ✓ slices of cheese.

Look at the pictures. Then drag and drop the correct quantifiers that describe each one.

1. a bunch of ✓

3. two loaves of ✓

4. a loaf of ✓

2. two bottles of ✓

Complete the sentence using the correct quantifier.

I drink  plenty of   water every day.

