Unit 1 Revision- Term 1(2024-2025)

Read the texts then choose the correct answer:

Hello everyone! My name is Lucy and this is my beloved grandfather! His name is Tim and he is my best friend. My grandfather is sixty-four years old and he is retired now, so he has plenty of time to be and play with me. I love him very much and I know he loves me too. We usually spend a lot of time together.

He is a widow and he lives with me, my father, my mother and my brother Kevin. We live in a big house in Fort Collins, Colorado. My grandfather is a very tall and strong man! Can you see me on his shoulders in this picture? He is really strong! My grandfather is a patient and caring man and sometimes I think he is a magician. He's always guessing what I want to do or to eat or what I feel inside!... When I am sad, he always makes me laugh with his funny faces. He puts me on his shoulders, he tells me many stories (I know they are imaginary, but I pretend they are real!), he even sings for me!

Everyday my grandfather Tim prepares my breakfast, he drives me school and picks me up at the end of classes, he helps me with my school work, he takes me to the swimming-pool, he plays chess with me and he counts the stars with me. You know, my grandfather is the only grown-up I know who truly understands me. I love him very much!

A Trip to Dubai

Last weekend, Fatima's family went to Dubai for two days. It was very hot and humid. There was a lot of traffic! The weather report gave a warning of extreme weather. There was going to be a sandstorm. Sandstorms are dangerous so they stayed in the hotel all day. The next day, they went to many places. First, they took a taxi to one of the most famous landmarks in the world - the Burj Khalifa. It is the tallest building in the world. You can't walk up the stairs so they took the lift to the top. It's a bit scary and you have to be brave! They saw famous buildings. They thought the view was wonderful from the top of Burj Khalifa. Afterwards, they went to the Dubai Wildlife Park. They saw a lot of animals there. They saw lions, monkeys, elephants and giraffes. At the end of the day, they took a bus to the beach. They had dinner on the beach and saw some turtles in the water. B-Read the following passage and then answer the questions below:

A — Thailand

In Thailand, we don't hug or kiss each other when we meet. We greet friends and colleagues with 'wai'. Wai is a gesture. A wai can mean "Hello," "Thank you," "I'm sorry," or "Goodbye." You put your hands together and bow your head while looking down. The tips of your thumbs should touch your chin for a friend and your nose for someone older than you. The higher your hands, the more respect you show. Not returning someone's wai is rude. However, today younger people usually wave and even hug their friends.

B — Japan

In Japan, the formal way to greet each other is by bowing. Foreign visitors can shake hands and bow their head a little when they meet, or just nod their head. The bow is quick, you don't smile and there is little, or no, eye contact. In a conversation, when you are listening to a Japanese person, it is important to nod your head. This shows that you are listening and that you understand the speaker. When you wave your hand in front of your face, it means 'no' or 'I don't know'. Don't stand too close to the other person and never touch or hug them.

C — New Zealand

In New Zealand, the formal way to greet each other is by shaking hands and smiling. You should use a New Zealander's surname and not their first name, until the person suggests it. When greeting a New Zealand Maori, it is important to touch your nose and forehead to the other person's, and shake their hand. This is called 'hongi' and it shows that you understand and respect the Maori culture. When in conversation with a Maori, never say negative things about New Zealand or its people. Treat everyone with respect.
